

Milton Hershey Anticipation/Reaction Guide

Let's see what you know about Milton Hershey's life and the legacy he left behind! Before visiting The Hershey Story, read the statements below and color in either true(T) or false (F) in the first column. While at the museum, be on the lookout for the answers. When you get back to school, fill in the remaining column and share your answers with your class. Good luck! Mr. Hershey would be proud!

Questions	Pre-Museum Predictions		Post-Museum Findings
1. Milton Hershey was born in a farmhouse a mile from where he would later build his chocolate factory.
2. Milton Hershey's was a successful candy maker right from the start.
3. Milton Hershey and his wife, Catherine Sweeney, had two children.
4. Milton Hershey owned a successful caramel company in Lancaster, PA.
5. Milton Hershey's chocolate company was the first to produce a chocolate bar.
6. Milton Hershey created a chocolate bar for soldiers in World War II called the Field Ration D bar.

Questions	Pre-Museum Predictions	Post-Museum Findings
7. Milton Hershey built a sugar mill in Cuba to use in his chocolate making. He named the town in Cuba Central Hershey .	 T  F	 T  F
8. Milton Hershey was scheduled to sail on the Titanic, but canceled his plans at the last minute.	 T  F	 T  F
9. Milton Hershey created a “model town” for his employees that included schools, a bank, a theater, a swimming pool, and a library.	 T  F	 T  F
10. Milton Hershey bought cars for his employees to get to and from work.	 T  F	 T  F
11. It was Milton Hershey’s idea to build a school for orphan children called the Hershey Industrial School.	 T  F	 T  F
12. Milton Hershey died in 1945, but his legacy still remains today as the town of Hershey continues to boast a thriving chocolate factory, Hershey Park, the Hershey Medical Center, and several other	 T  F	 T  F services that he envisioned and created.

--	--	--